Insight from Fr. Flood

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Family Perspective In today's gospel the apostles were giddy with their new POWER ("Even the demons obey us!"). On this July Fourth weekend, Jesus cautions power is easily misused to dominate or manipulate others. True power is meant to "free captives," especially those handcuffed by grief, chained to unresolved conflict, jailed inside a timid personality or imprisoned by illness.

In Sympathy

Our loving prayers and deepest sympathy are extended to the families of Glen Brunner, Betty Smith, and Marjorie Speer who were called to their eternal rest this past week. Please pray for them and all our departed friends and relatives.

Welcome to Ava Wollenberg, infant daughter of Scott and Amy Wollenberg, baptized here at St. Mary's last weekend.

Banns III- Aubin Gilbert and Michael D'Andrea.

Religious Education News:

- 10 Great Dates: Our next Date Night is July 9th; 6:15pm in Commons. Babysitting is provided but please call to let us know how many children.
- Good Shepherd Program: We are in need of parishioners who would be willing to help our program with the making of wood items and sewing projects. Any parishioner interested in helping with the projects, please contact Deb Geason at the parish office 419.625.7465 ext 24 or email:dgeason@stmarysandusky.org.
- Kids for Christ Vacation Bible School will be the week of July 26th-30th, 6-8:00PM at St.Mary's Commons and Church grounds. Our theme this year is "Circus of Stars—Spotlight on the Father". We are still taking registrations, stop in the parish office to sign up kids ages 4-10. We can still use volunteer help with activities and snacks. There is no registration fee but donations are gratefully accepted.

Haiti Relief Thank You...from the Archbishop of New York

Dear Father Nuss & St. Mary's Parishioners, June 21, 2010
Permit me this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to you at St. Mary's for your most generous contribution of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to Catholic Relief Services in its efforts to assist the people of Haiti following the tragedy of January 12th. How grateful I am for everyone's participation, making Saint Mary's Catholic Church the largest parish contributor from the Diocese of Toledo. Your gift will go a long way in enabling this devastated nation to rebuild. May the Lord bless all of you.

With prayerful best wishes, I am, Fraternally in Christ,
Most Reverend Timothy M. Dolan, Archbishop of New York.

Parish Office Closed - Monday July 5th.

Daughters of Isabella, July 7th, 6:15 meeting at Sts. Peter & Paul Gathering Space for a picnic. Charge will be $5.00. The program will be by Linda Podoli.

Volunteer Opportunities within St. Mary's Parish - Many opportunities exist within our parish community to serve as a ministry volunteer. Each week we will highlight a different ministry and briefly explain the volunteer duties and times for that ministry. If you feel your time and talents could enrich our parish family, call the parish office at 419.625.7465 or email: office@stmarysandusky.org.

Music Ministry - It is no accident that there is an entire book of psalms (songs) in the Bible to worship God. At our Masses here at St. Mary's we join our voices to the Lord as our four parish choirs and cantors assist us in our worship. If you would like to join the choirs or help with music ministry in any way, call our music director, Mr. Tim Claubaugh 419.625.7465 ext. 18 to discuss.

From Father Dave's desk.....

What a special gift of God's making my first year here as your pastor has been! I love being a priest and I especially love being your priest. My love for the priesthood was inspired mightily by the many impressive priests who have been a part of my lifetime beginning with my great-uncle and priest of 62 years, Fr. Rolland Glass. Memories still are vivid for me of his praying from his breviary, joyously celebrating the Mass, effortlessly caring for and helping people, and constantly urging those whom he encountered to seek and find the hope and inner peace which Christ Jesus so deeply desires to give to us all. He harbored a real and infectious joy which was something I wanted similarly to characterize my daily living.

While attending Marquette University, I frequently made my way to his parish north of Milwaukee to play golf together, take in walks along the beautiful Lake Michigan shore and root for the Packers after Sunday morning Mass. As a young boy growing up in Wisconsin, he took me to my first MLB game – the Brewers lost to the Tigers after Gates Brown ruined a perfectly fine afternoon with a dramatic home run giving Detroit the victory. His last parish and parish from which he retired as a priest and pastor of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee was...St. Mary's!

Without the priests God generously put into my life, there is nothing I could have done. Without them, the Church could do nothing, for we would then be without the Eucharist, without Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

Throughout the Year for Priests which concluded last month, we have heard wonderful testimonies from Catholics about the terrific difference priests have made in their lives. Many people voiced their appreciation for their dedicated labors and numerous sacrifices. Oftentimes the priest's work is thankless task, but this past year our priests especially have heard people say thanks. I add my voice to that chorus of gratitude, including special words of thanks to Fr. Jason who recently marked his first anniversary as a priest!

Friends, if we are to recapture our sense of the Lord's Day, our priests will lead us. We often hear people tease their priests that they only work one day a week – Sunday! Of course, that all is in good fun, for parishioners know that a priest's work is never done. Yet, Sunday is the day of our greatest work or, more accurately, it is the Lord's work, and we experience the best priestly version of ourselves when we consecrate the Lord's Day by leading the people in the Lord's own sacrifice. Many priests, who prudently sensibly begin preparing their Sunday homilies early in the week, regularly are thinking about the next Sunday. In this sense, they choose to live from Sunday to Sunday with their eyes fixed during the week on the Lord's Day to come. It is important that our priests share that sense of Sunday with their parishioners so that the Church Herself similarly comes to live from Sunday to Sunday.

As my second year as your pastor dawns, I urge you to join me in being bold and confident in inviting people back to Sunday Mass who have grown distant from it. Let us also encourage each other to make the Lord's Day a day of rest, a day of the Church, a day for the family. We all will benefit immensely by rededicating ourselves to the weekly priority of celebrating Sunday as the Lord's Day. So much depends on it. If we let our Sunday observance slide when it is so clear that the Lord desires it, how can we hope to follow the Lord's will in more difficult things?

A deeper consideration of the theological dimensions of the Lord's Day may well give rise to charitable actions that further will consecrate Sunday. For example, Sunday might be a time for visiting the sick and the lonely, the infirmed and home bound members of our parish family. Each priest and each parish will find their own ways of celebrating Sunday precisely as the day of the Lord and the day of the Church.

See you at Mass!

Fr. Dave
